WHAT IS THE PURPOSE OF THIS MEETING?

All About Title I

Federal guidelines require Title I schools to hold an Annual Parent Meeting About the Benefits of the Title I Schoolwide Program to explain and discuss the Title I Schoolwide Program requirements.

Palm Springs Middle School is a Title I School.

WHAT IS THE PURPOSE OF THIS MEETING? (CONT'D.)

All About Title I

Title I is the largest federally funded education program under the Every Student Succeeds Act (ESSA)

- It is designed to provide students with additional help in Reading, Language Arts, Mathematics, Science and Social Studies.
- Its main objective is to support schools and districts in order to ensure that high quality education is equitable for all students.
- The Title I Schoolwide Program is committed to helping schools close the achievement gap between disadvantaged and minority students and their peers.
- To learn more, please visit <http://title1.dadeschools.net>. This website is designed to supply visitors with information relevant to Title I and to provide a clear understanding of the overall program.

WHAT IS OUR TITLE I SCHOOL-LEVEL PFEP?

Title I School-level PFEP

The Title I School-level PFEP is a blueprint of how Palm Springs Middle School will work together with parents, family members, and the community to establish expectations for family engagement and strengthen student academic achievement.

WHAT IS THE SCHOOL-PARENT COMPACT?

The School-Parent Compact

- Each Title I school must have a School-Parent Compact that is developed jointly by parents and school personnel.
- The compact sets out the responsibilities of the students, parents, and school staff in striving to raise student academic achievement.

WHAT DOES SCHOOL AND PARENT COLLABORATION LOOK LIKE?

Parents, Families, and Schools Working Together

- Our school offers workshops, training sessions, and parent/teacher conferences at flexible meeting times and a Parent Resource Center/Area;
- School and parent partnerships are built within advisory councils such as the Educational Excellence School Advisory Council (EESAC), the Title I District Advisory Council (DAC), and the North Region Parent Advisory Council (PAC); and

HOW DO WE USE OUR SCHOOL ACHIEVEMENT DATA?

School Achievement and Performance Data

- Our school uses data to align the curriculum to State and District academic standards.
- Our instructional practices are adjusted based on the findings of the assessment data.
- For further details about our school achievement data, we invite you to attend the EESAC meetings throughout the school year.

WHAT IS THE PARENT'S RIGHT-TO-KNOW?

Parent's Right-To-Know

- Parents should be provided information regarding the level of academic achievement of their child on State required academic assessments.
- To the extent that it is feasible, information must be in a language that parents can understand.

HOW CAN PARENTS AND FAMILIES PROVIDE INPUT?

School-level Parent and Family Engagement Survey

- Please complete the 2023-2024 Title I School-level Parent and Family Engagement Survey located at in order to assist with the implementation of a Title I Schoolwide Program that meets the needs of your family.
- The results of this survey will be utilized to help in the development of the School-level Title I Parent and Family Engagement Plan (PFEP), and to plan future parent and family engagement activities, events, and workshops at Palm Springs Middle School.
